

Nagle College Instrumental Program

Please find the following information/operational details

Music Bursary

Available to students who learn a Brass or Woodwind Instrument

- Provides financial assistance from the college towards the cost of lessons
- Shared or group lessons capped at $70 per term.
- Your child's Music Tutor will invoice you directly for the fee of $70 for the term's lesson
- You pay this directly to the tutor (bank details will be on their invoice)
- Your child's bursary will remain allocated for the duration of one school year
- An instrument will be allocated at the first lesson at no cost.

Terms & Conditions-

- Payment of invoices issues by music tutors is expected within 3 weeks
- If lesson payment is delayed or withheld, the tutor may cease lessons. The allocated bursary may be withdrawn
- As the school is contributing financially, we expect that the student undertakes regular home practice
- Non bursary instruments (guitar, piano, drumkit and percussion) fees are negotiated with music tutors
- Individual & group lessons are optional except piano. Indicative costs are:
*Shared lesson $24 *Individual lesson $35
- All students can participate in bands: guitar group, concert bands & percussion groups

Lesson Timetabling-

- Music lessons may be a mixture of 29mins or 58mins as per timetable on a rotational system.

Communication-

- Both the music tutor and I will work with your child throughout the year, and you may contact either of us at any stage for further information, updates or questions.

As program Co-ordinator I am usually the first person to liaise with and am pleased to answer any queries you may have. I can be contacted via email
